

Change Happens

Have a great day,
find your way

The Alien Life

"Man, who you calling a bat?"

Hi

How can you be free behind a mask?

It is not often we are free together, sense and survival dictate we test the waters upon the gathering, and adjust accordingly our presentation

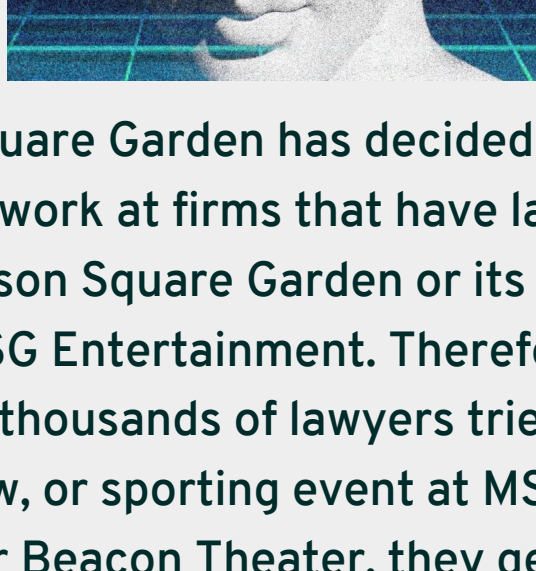

Imagine, in a moment, that we, all of us, operated as our truest selves, the chaos would be spectacular

So we temper what is in our hearts and heads, and we respect the sacred covenant:

though shalt not be too weird, today

The paranoid are vindicated

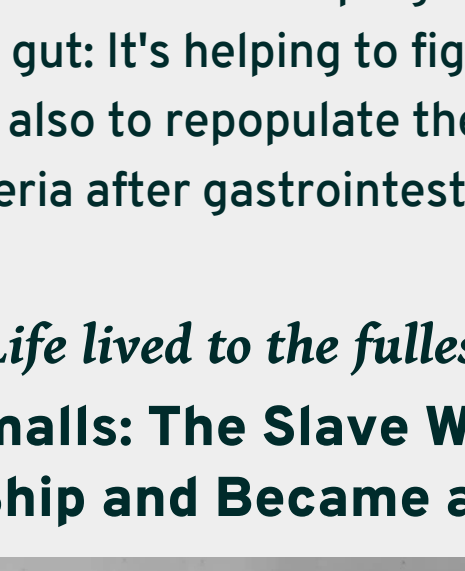

Facial recognition

" Madison Square Garden has decided to bar lawyers who work at firms that have lawsuits against Madison Square Garden or its parent company, MSG Entertainment. Therefore, any time one of these thousands of lawyers tries to go to a concert, show, or sporting event at MSG, Radio City Music Hall, or Beacon Theater, they get stopped at the metal detector and turned away. "

Not a spare part

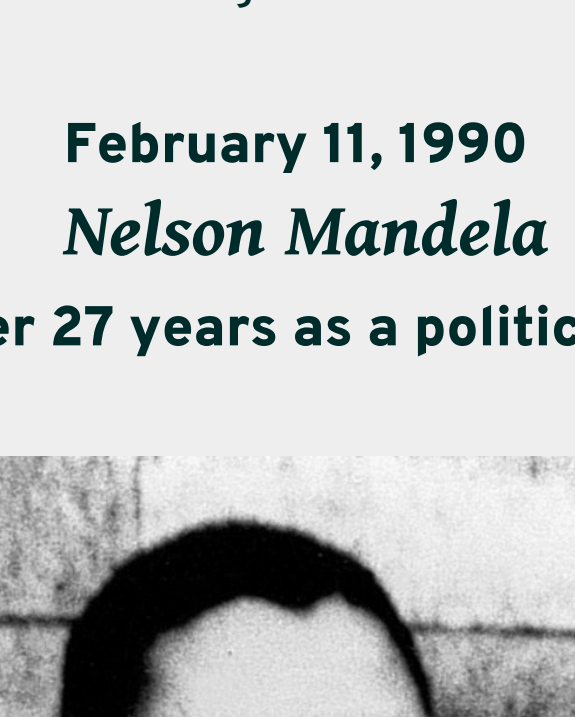

Your appendix is not, in fact, useless

" So the appendix is kind of helping us in two ways, both within the gut: It's helping to fight off invading pathogens, but also to repopulate the gut with this beneficial bacteria after gastrointestinal issues. "

Life lived to the fullest

Robert Smalls: The Slave Who Stole a Confederate Ship and Became a Congressman

" When he wasn't fighting battles at sea, Smalls was fighting civil rights battles on land. In December 1864, Smalls was tossed out of an all-white streetcar in Philadelphia. Enraged, he used his budding fame to protest the segregation of public transit. Three years later, the streetcars of Philadelphia were integrated. "

February 11, 1990

Nelson Mandela

Freed after 27 years as a political prisoner

Wiki Rabbit Hole

" Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela, born Rolihlahla Mandela; 18 July 1918 – 5 December 2013) was a South African anti-apartheid activist and politician who served as the first president of South Africa from 1994 to 1999. He was the country's first black head of state and the first elected in a fully representative democratic election. His government focused on dismantling the legacy of apartheid by fostering racial reconciliation. Ideologically an African nationalist and socialist, he served as the president of the African National Congress (ANC) party from 1991 to 1997. "

From out of the muck

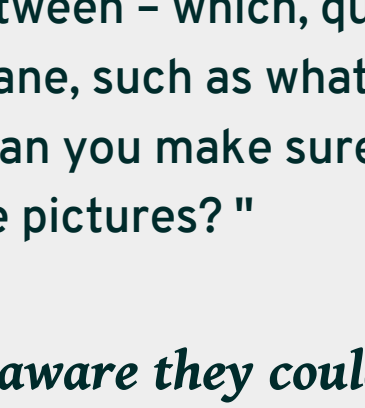

World War II Innovations That Changed Everyday Life

" In the 1940s, the word "computers" referred to people (mostly women) who performed complex calculations by hand. During World War II, the United States began to develop new machines to do calculations for ballistics trajectories, and those who had been doing computations by hand took jobs programming these machines. "

Might as well be good at it

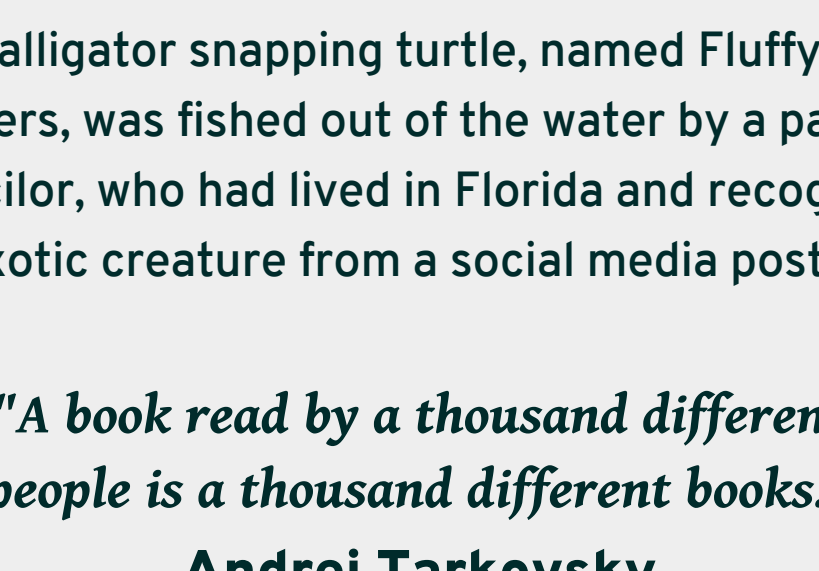

Improve your pictures

" We are all photographers now, with a phone in our pocket ready to capture life, love and everything in between – which, quite often, is incredibly mundane, such as what we had for lunch. But how can you make sure you are taking the best possible pictures? "

I was not aware they could be found

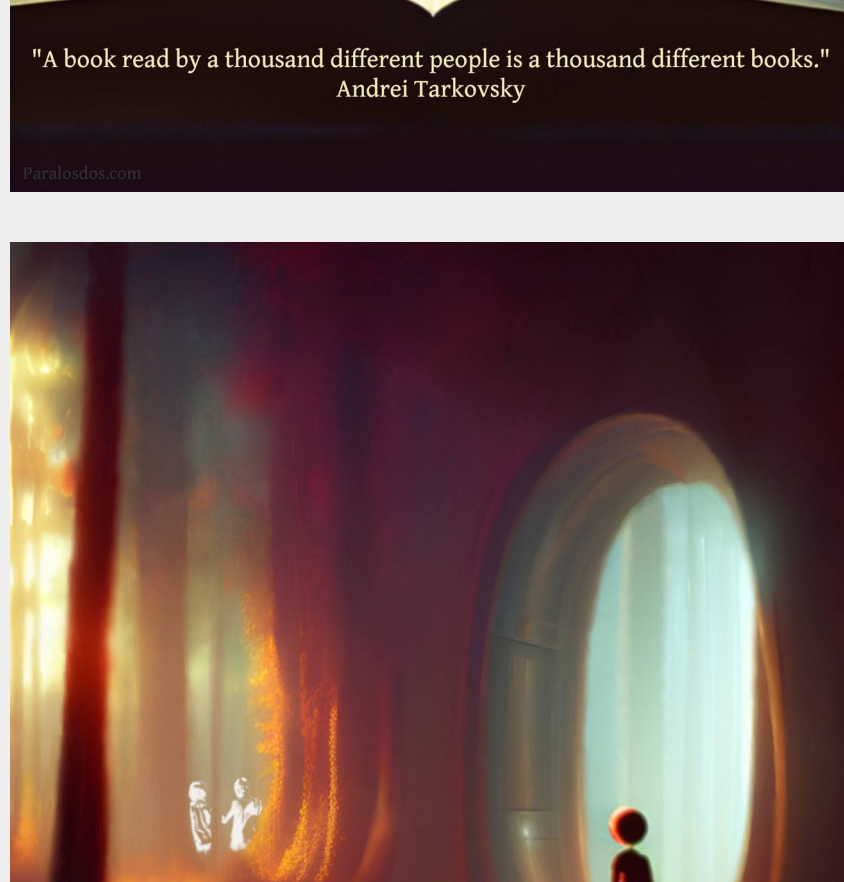

Alligator snapping turtle found in the UK

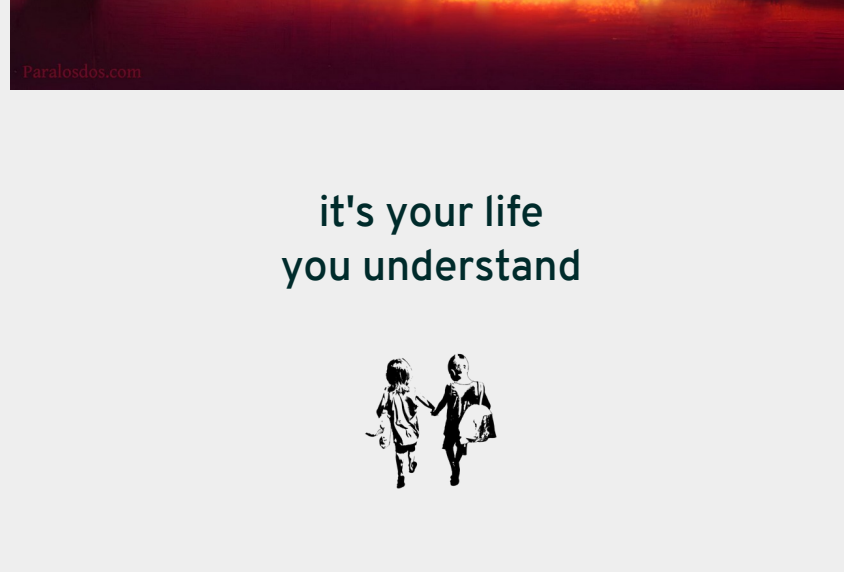

" The alligator snapping turtle, named Fluffy by its rescuers, was fished out of the water by a parish councillor, who had lived in Florida and recognized the exotic creature from a social media post. "

"A book read by a thousand different people is a thousand different books."

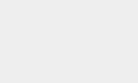

Andrei Tarkovsky

"A book read by a thousand different people is a thousand different books."
Andrei Tarkovsky

it's your life
you understand

Please feel free to forward Change Happens to anyone

